

To those who have applied to our prize winning essay

10th October 2016

Shinsei Kaikan

Thank you for entering our essay competition. We are happy to announce the results as follows.

The Grand Prize (1 essay from amongst all categories)

Section 1;

YAMANE IBUKI;

[Finding Hope in The Gospel For Someone Who Struggles With Insecurity]

-based on experiences through dialogues at the dormitory.

Section 2:

Not Applicable

Excellence Award (2 essays from amongst all categories)

Section 1;

ODA TAKENAO

[The Role & Expectations Of Religion In Modern Japanese Society]

KUMAGAI YURI

[What We Expect Of Religion In Modern Japanese Society]

Section 2;

DAVID LUIZ DOS ANJOS

[An Asymptote Of Terrestrial Happiness]

LE BAO NGOC

[Ways In Which Japanese Society And People Can Deepen And Improve Relationships With International Students & Foreigners In Japan]

Highly Commended (3 essays from amongst categories)

Section 1;

SAKURAI YURIKO

[The Religion We Speak For A Lifetime]

DAIMONN AYAKA

[A Fight For Peace]

PHAM NOA KHANH NGUYEN

[The Role & Expectations Of Religion In Modern Japanese Society]

Section 2;

GUO LONGJUN

[How Could One Become Genuine Friends With Japanese People]

HA JINSUN

[Nesting In Japan-My Life In Japan & Interaction With The Japanese People]

LI MEIFENG

[Ways To Become True Friends]

Participants in our essay competition will be notified of the results by letter.

The Award Ceremony will be held at the Shinsei Kaikan (3rd floor) on Sunday 9th October at 16:30.

We look forward to seeing you there.